

Release for Video Recordings:

I understand and agree that the yoga teacher training program administrator (Alex) and The Studio will record portions of this program and that all such recordings will remain the exclusive property of the yoga teacher training program. By my participation, I am granting you my full permission and right to use my appearance in the yoga review archive, future productions, or for marketing and promotional purposes according to the following rules:

- 1) You may request at any time the camera be turned off.
- 2) It will be made clear when the camera is on.
- 3) Should the administrator (Alex) or Studio want to use any footage for public viewing: If my voice or image appears on the footage, the administrator or Studio must secure my permission in order to make it viewable to the public. Otherwise, the footage will not be used. Permission request will be sent to email address provided with the application. Requests that take more than 10 days shall be considered granted.
- 4) Edited Videos containing my image or voice will only be available by password protected website where only other teacher trainees will have access to it.
- 5) Recording will never be done for circle work, processing work, or any other time where personal information may be more likely.
